Negro Preacher Says Wilmington, N. C., Will Be Destroyed

WAS ASLEEP ON HIS BEAT

Norfolk Police Commissioners Discharge a Patrolman—Seamen of Chilean Vessel Libel Ship for Their Wages—Gossip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., July 18.—A man George Abraham Richardson, VII, predicting the destruction of Wilmington, N. C., by fire from Heaven on August 15, 1904.

Such is the greeting one gets from a negro of good appearance, who passed through Norfolk to-day en route from Elizabeth City, where he had journeyed to acquainting the Hon. Haywood Sawyer with a version in which his ascendancy to the gubernatorial chair of North Carolina was foretold.

Richardson has been lecturing to his people down in North Carolina for months. Great crowds of negroes hear him, but they are not so credulous as in ante-bellum days, and his prognostications are greeted by them as by the whites.

WILLIAM UPDEGRASS, colored, was sentenced by Justice Taylor this morning to serve thirty days in jail, and was also put under $100 bond as a suspicious character and an idler.

Mr. John Gallagher, a merchant of Danville, Va., came to Norfolk yesterday and Updegrass undertook to direct him to the Gladstone Hotel, late last night. Police-man Lane noticed the two in Brambleton between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, and when questioned Updegrass was unable to give a satisfactory account of his reason for leading Mr. Gallagher so far from his hotel.

Mr. Gallagher left the city this morning, so was unable to appear at the trial. SEAMEN LIBEL SHIP.

The seamen of the Chilean steamer Rancagua, who were arrested as deserters here last night were all discharged by Justice Taylor, of the Police Court, this morning, because of the failure of the captain Sorrensen to appear as a prosecutor. The justice ordered the sergeant to collect $25 from the captain for each warrant that he had served. There were eighteen of them.

Meantime the sailors had consulted an attorney and had prepared a libel against the captain for their wages amounting to $201. The libel was served and the ship will have to give bond or remain here till the case is settled. The seamen allege that they have been poorly fed and badly treated. They demand in the petition for the libel that their terms of service expire on July 21st, and that they do not wish to make another contract for a voyage on the vessel. They did not return to the vessel because they were afraid of the captain's violence, and, therefore, they remained ashore. Bond was made for $2,000, and the ship is at liberty. The steamer came here to get a cargo of coal for Valparaiso.

The steamer left here this afternoon and went down the river preparatory to sailing for Valparaiso. She drew thirty feet and two inches, the greatest depth of water of any vessel which ever left this harbor. She carries a general cargo and 6,000 tons of coal.

COMPLICATED BANKRUPTCY CASE. S. Gordon Cummings of Hampton, today argued the case of Ellison and Moore in the bankruptcy suit before Judge Waddill in the United States District Court.

Moore, one of the partners, transferred his interest in the firm to Ellison. Ellison filed his petition in the bankruptcy court for the benefit of his personal creditors. Then the creditors of the firm filed involuntary proceedings against the firm, and propose to take all the assets they can find to pay the debt of the firm. Judge Waddill heard the case and reserved his opinion.

OFFICER DISMISSED. Officer Oliver was dismissed from the police force this afternoon by the Police Commissioners for absence from duty. He was stationed in front of a social club on Sunday, where the sale of whiskey was suspected. He left the station for an hour to go home. There is no appeal for him.

Congressman Small, of North Carolina, was here to-day in conference with Captain Winslow, of the United States engineer corps, and the members of the Chamber of Commerce on the proposed inland water way from Norfolk to Beaufort, N. C. Mr. Small is confident of the success of the enterprise, because representations of its advantages are being prepared to present to Congress.

TATE SPRING

"THE CARLSBAD OF AMERICA."

Read the following unsolicited words of praise from prominent citizens of Richmond and other Virginians, who have been benefited by Tate Spring and its water:

DR. GEORGE BEN JOHNSTON: "I have a very high opinion of Tate Spring water. I use it very largely and refer a good many people to Tate Spring, and have never yet sent a person there who was not greatly benefited."

W. H. WHITE: "I visited Tate Spring and commenced improving immediately after I commenced using the water."

P. MARTIN, of Lynchburg: "I most cheerfully recommend to any one suffering with indigestion to use Tate Spring water, and at the spring if possible. It cured me, though fifteen years a victim. I am not surprised at the increasing demand for it."

J. E. H. HANCKEL, of Roanoke: "I regard Tate Spring water as the best that I know of in the world for persons who are in any kind of rundown condition or suffering from any liver or kidney disorder."

W. T. GRAYBILL, of Salem: "Experience and comparison with other waters warrant me in emphasizing the high opinion I have of Tate Spring water and the superior comforts of your superior resort."

Bids were received by the Town Council in open session Thursday night for the telephone franchise of Chatham, Mr. J. D. Riddle, of Mountain City, Tenn., makes a bid of $300, and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company bid $50. A majority of the Council were in favor of awarding to the latter, but adjourned to meet again Tuesday night, when the matter will be disposed of.

Master Estes Carter Thompson arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Thompson Friday for an indefinite stay. The devotees of whist were delightfully entertained by Miss Lisa Ragsdale at her new residence on Main Street Thursday evening. Six tables were filled and the game was warmly contested at every point.

Miss Mabel Moon carried off the first prize and Mr. J. E. Lanier fell heir to the booty. The refreshments which were had in profusion were delightful.

The July term of Pittsylvania County Court will convene Monday. There is one prisoner in jail to appear before the grand jury.

Mr. James J. Carter, and family, of Lynchburg, are stopping a few days with Miss Mattie Martin.

Mrs. John W. Craddock and children, of Lynchburg, are at the old home of the late Mrs. E. C. Gilmer, for the summer.

ORANGE HORSE SHOW

Great Things Claimed for the Approaching Exhibition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ORANGE, Va., July 18.—The entries for the sixth annual exhibition of the Orange Horseman's Association on the 20th and 22nd instant, closed on the 17th. The coming show bids fair to far exceed any previous exhibition given by the association. It is one of the few shows in the State where the grounds are practically within the corporate limits of the town. The secretary, Dr. L. S. Ricketts, has been untiring in his efforts to make the coming show the greatest in the State for this season, with the possible exception of the Richmond show in October.

The exhibitors will not only include the most popular horse show people in the State, but also many from adjoining States. Among the well known Virginia exhibitors will be C. H. Hunkamp, Courtland H. Smith, Mrs. Blair Johnson, Mrs. Allen Potts, J. B. McComb, H. O. Lyne, W. W. Sanford, Morris and Joshua and William Dupont.

The United States Marine band will be in attendance and also many prominent men from this State, including Governor Montague and Senators Daniel and Martin.

Infant's Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLIVER, Va., July 18.—Emily Roseville, the child of N. Snowden and Salina, has been untiring in her efforts to make the coming show the greatest in the State for this season, with the possible exception of the Richmond show in October.

At her beautiful home on Ashe Street, Miss Myrtle Arnsfeldt delightfully entertained a party of young people last night at a flitch party, in honor of her guest, Miss Kathryn Wakefield, of Charlotte. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served. Among those enjoying Miss Arnsfeldt's gracious hospitality were Miss Pearl Lee and Mr. J. P. Peebles; Miss Ella Agburn and Mr. David White; Miss Hattie Watlington and Mr. Charles J. Lamb; Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Harrison; Mrs. Thomas C. Coffin, and Mr. Walter E. Brown.

A TROLLEY PARTY.

A delightful trolley party was given last night by Mrs. Z. V. Taylor, commensurate to Miss Agburn, Miss Furlish, of Danville, and Miss Rhia Henderson, of Yanceyville. In a beautifully lighted and decorated car fifty young ladies and gentlemen, Mrs. Taylor's guests for the evening, rode over the entire street car system, and then out to Lindley Park, where there was dancing, and refreshments were served. After midnight the car was brought back, every passenger pronouncing the event a most happy one.

OLD DIVORCE CASE ENDED

The Cause of Moore v. Moore Compromised.

AFTER A PHYSICIAN

State Board Wants a Healer at Greensboro to Stand an Examination.

Several Short Notes of the Greensboro People.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 18.—The celebrated divorce case of Moore v. Moore, which has been pending in Alexander county for several years, was compromised in Catawba court yesterday, whither it was remanded on account of local prejudice against Mrs. Moore in Alexander county. The case had excited great interest, owing to the prominence of the parties, the plaintiff being a wealthy cotton manufacturer. It was a cross suit, both parties alleging cause against each other. By the terms of compromise Mrs. Moore allowed a judgment for divorce to be entered in her husband's favor, the husband allowing a judgment against himself in favor of the wife for the costs of the action and $10,000. Messrs. Bynum and Long, of Greensboro, were Mrs. Moore's attorneys.

AFTER A DOCTOR.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle, a member of the State Medical Board, swore out three warrants yesterday against Dr. Andrew C. Biggs for practicing medicine in Greensboro without a license. Some months ago Dr. Biggs located here as a non-medical physician, using a system of drugless healing, with massage and physical culture treatment. A warrant was served against him then, and the case is now in the Supreme Court. Dr. Biggs gave bond in that case and continued to treat patients, having a large and growing practice.

Since Dr. Biggs was first indicted several osteopath physicians in the State applied to the Board of Medical Examiners for a certificate, but every one of them was refused, and most of them have left the State. Dr. Biggs proposes to test the law.
